THREE STARTING POINTS

FOR LEADING FAMILY WORSHIP

YOUR EXAMPLE

While we are called to teach the Word of God to our children, we must always take great care to actually live out our faith in front of them as well.

For though you have countless guides in Christ, you do not have many fathers. For I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel. I urge you, then, be imitators of me.

1 Corinthians 4:15-16

Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

YOUR DEVOTION

When you begin your day delighting in the Word of God, enjoying the Lord's presence, and devoting yourself to prayer, you are equipped and ready to now spend your day leading your family— talking about the Lord with your children.

For an example of how God's Word must be on our heart before we can teach it to our children, read Deuteronomy 6:6-7.

YOUR TESTIMONY

When we tell our kids how the Lord saved us and gave us new life, we invite them to celebrate salvation with us & we provide for them a personal example of the power of the Gospel.

For an example of parents sharing testimonies with their children, see Joshua 4:1-7 & Ps. 78:4-7.
